Dynatronics to Supply Western Rehabilitation Health Network's 114 Clinics

Salt Lake City, Utah (September 22, 2009) – Dynatronics Corporation (NASDAQ: DYNT) announced it has signed a preferred vendor agreement to provide therapy equipment and medical supplies to Western Rehabilitation Health Network, an independent physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech-language pathology outpatient network which includes 114 clinics in Utah, Idaho and Colorado.

“We’re pleased to be working with such a fine group of clinics as Western Rehabilitation Health Network,” said Larry K. Beardall, Executive Vice President of Sales and Marketing at Dynatronics. “Western Rehabilitation Health Network is known for excellence in patient treatment. Our partnership will benefit the lives of many thousands of patients who need medical supplies and therapy services.”

According to Rhonda Noble, Executive Director of Western Rehabilitation Health Network, “We chose Dynatronics to be our preferred supplier in part because of their reputation of providing a high level of local customer service, their extensive product offering and their product support. In addition, their newly expanded catalog provides a broad range of value-based products for our practitioners and patients.”

With an expanded distribution channel of 45 direct sales representatives in 34 states, Dynatronics has begun actively seeking contracts with large chains of clinics, hospitals and group purchasing organizations (GPOs). “We look forward to announcing contracts with other large chains of clinics soon,” added Beardall.

Dynatronics manufactures, markets and distributes advanced-technology medical devices, orthopedic soft goods and supplies, treatment tables and rehabilitation equipment for the physical therapy, sports medicine, chiropractic, podiatry, plastic surgery, dermatology and other related medical, cosmetic and aesthetic markets.
